

Tudor crimes and punishments

Crime	Punishment
public drunkenness	drunkard's cloak a barrel with holes in for the head and hands gossiping	scold's bridle a metal cage put over the gossip's head begging	whipping
homelessness	whipping
stealing	whipping, amputation or hanging
murder	hanging
poisoning	boiling
spying	beheading
talking about the government	beheading
blasphemy	beheading
witchcraft	beheading
alchemy	beheading
treason	beheading or burning at the stake
high treason	hanging, drawing and quartering

