Fire Breathing Dragon

Supplies

- A paper cup
- Red, yellow and/or orange crepe paper
- Tissue paper or paint
- Pom-poms
- Wobbly eyes
- PVA glue
- Scissors

1 Use the scissors to cut out the base of the cup. You may need an adult to help with this.

4 Spread PVA glue onto the largest inside rim of the cup, then stick the strips of crepe paper onto this so that they stick out horizontally and look like flames coming out of the dragon's mouth. Leave to dry.

2 Now decorate the outside of the cup in your chosen colour. We have used tissue paper but you could also use paint. If using tissue paper, first spread PVA glue all over the outside of the cup, then tear pieces of tissue paper and carefully place them on until the whole of the outside of the cup is covered. Leave to dry.

5 Then add some eyes to your dragon! To do this, choose two pom-poms and use PVA glue to stick a wobbly eye onto each. Stick the pom-pom eyes onto the cup, towards the smaller rim.

3 Next, use scissors to cut out strips of crepe paper, which will form the fire for the dragon. We have used strips of red, orange and yellow.

6 Finally, your dragon will also need some nostrils! To create these, stick two pom-poms onto the edge of the largest rim of the cup.
