What Is Eid al-Fitr?

Eid al-Fitr is a special celebration at the end of Ramadan.

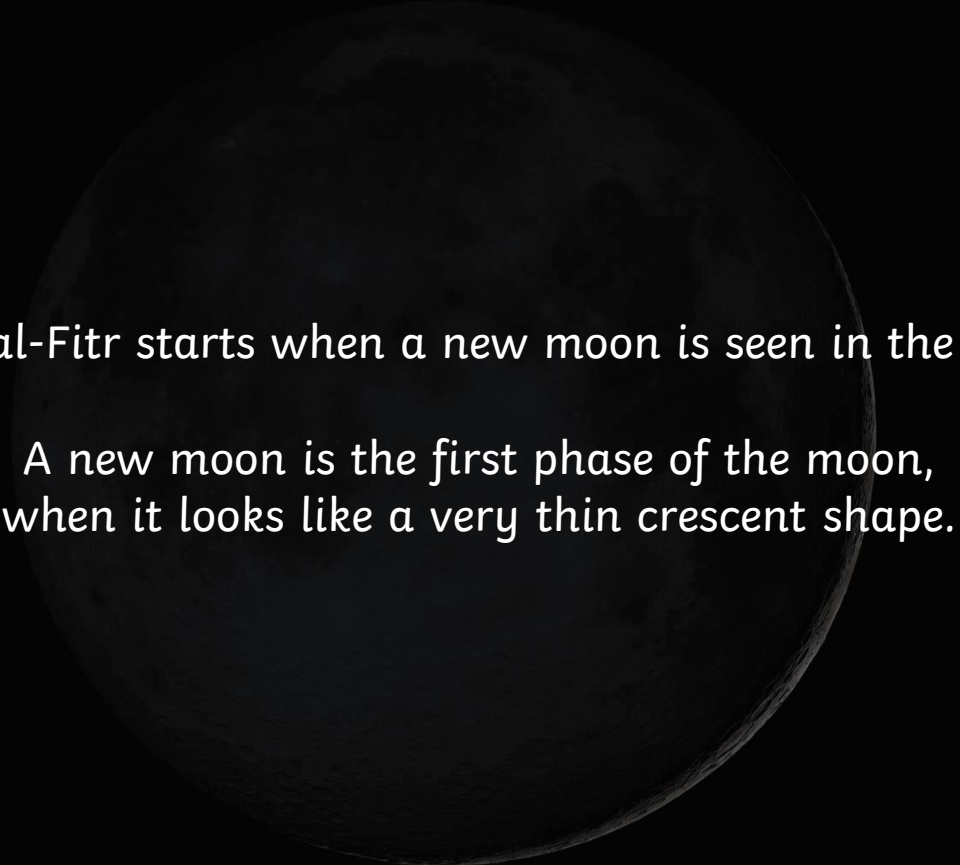

Eid al-Fitr means 'The Festival of Breaking of the Fast'.

Fasting during Ramadan means that Muslim people do not eat between sunrise and sunset.

Do you think fasting would be difficult?

Discuss It

Eid al-Fitr starts when a new moon is seen in the sky.

A new moon is the first phase of the moon,
when it looks like a very thin crescent shape.

An illustration of a mosque interior. On the left, there is a yellow arched doorway with a small wooden shoe rack containing three pairs of shoes. A green and yellow patterned prayer rug lies on the orange floor. In the background, a wooden staircase with a railing leads up. A man with dark skin, wearing a white kurti, white trousers, and a white cap, stands on the right with his hands clasped in front of him. A large white speech bubble with a black outline is positioned above him, containing the text: "Try this quiz to see how much you can remember about Eid al-Fitr." The entire scene is set against a light purple background with faint white crescent moon and star patterns.
