

Draw your pebble
What is it like?
How could you describe it?
adjectives, similes,

rough

smooth

sharp

rounded

bumpy

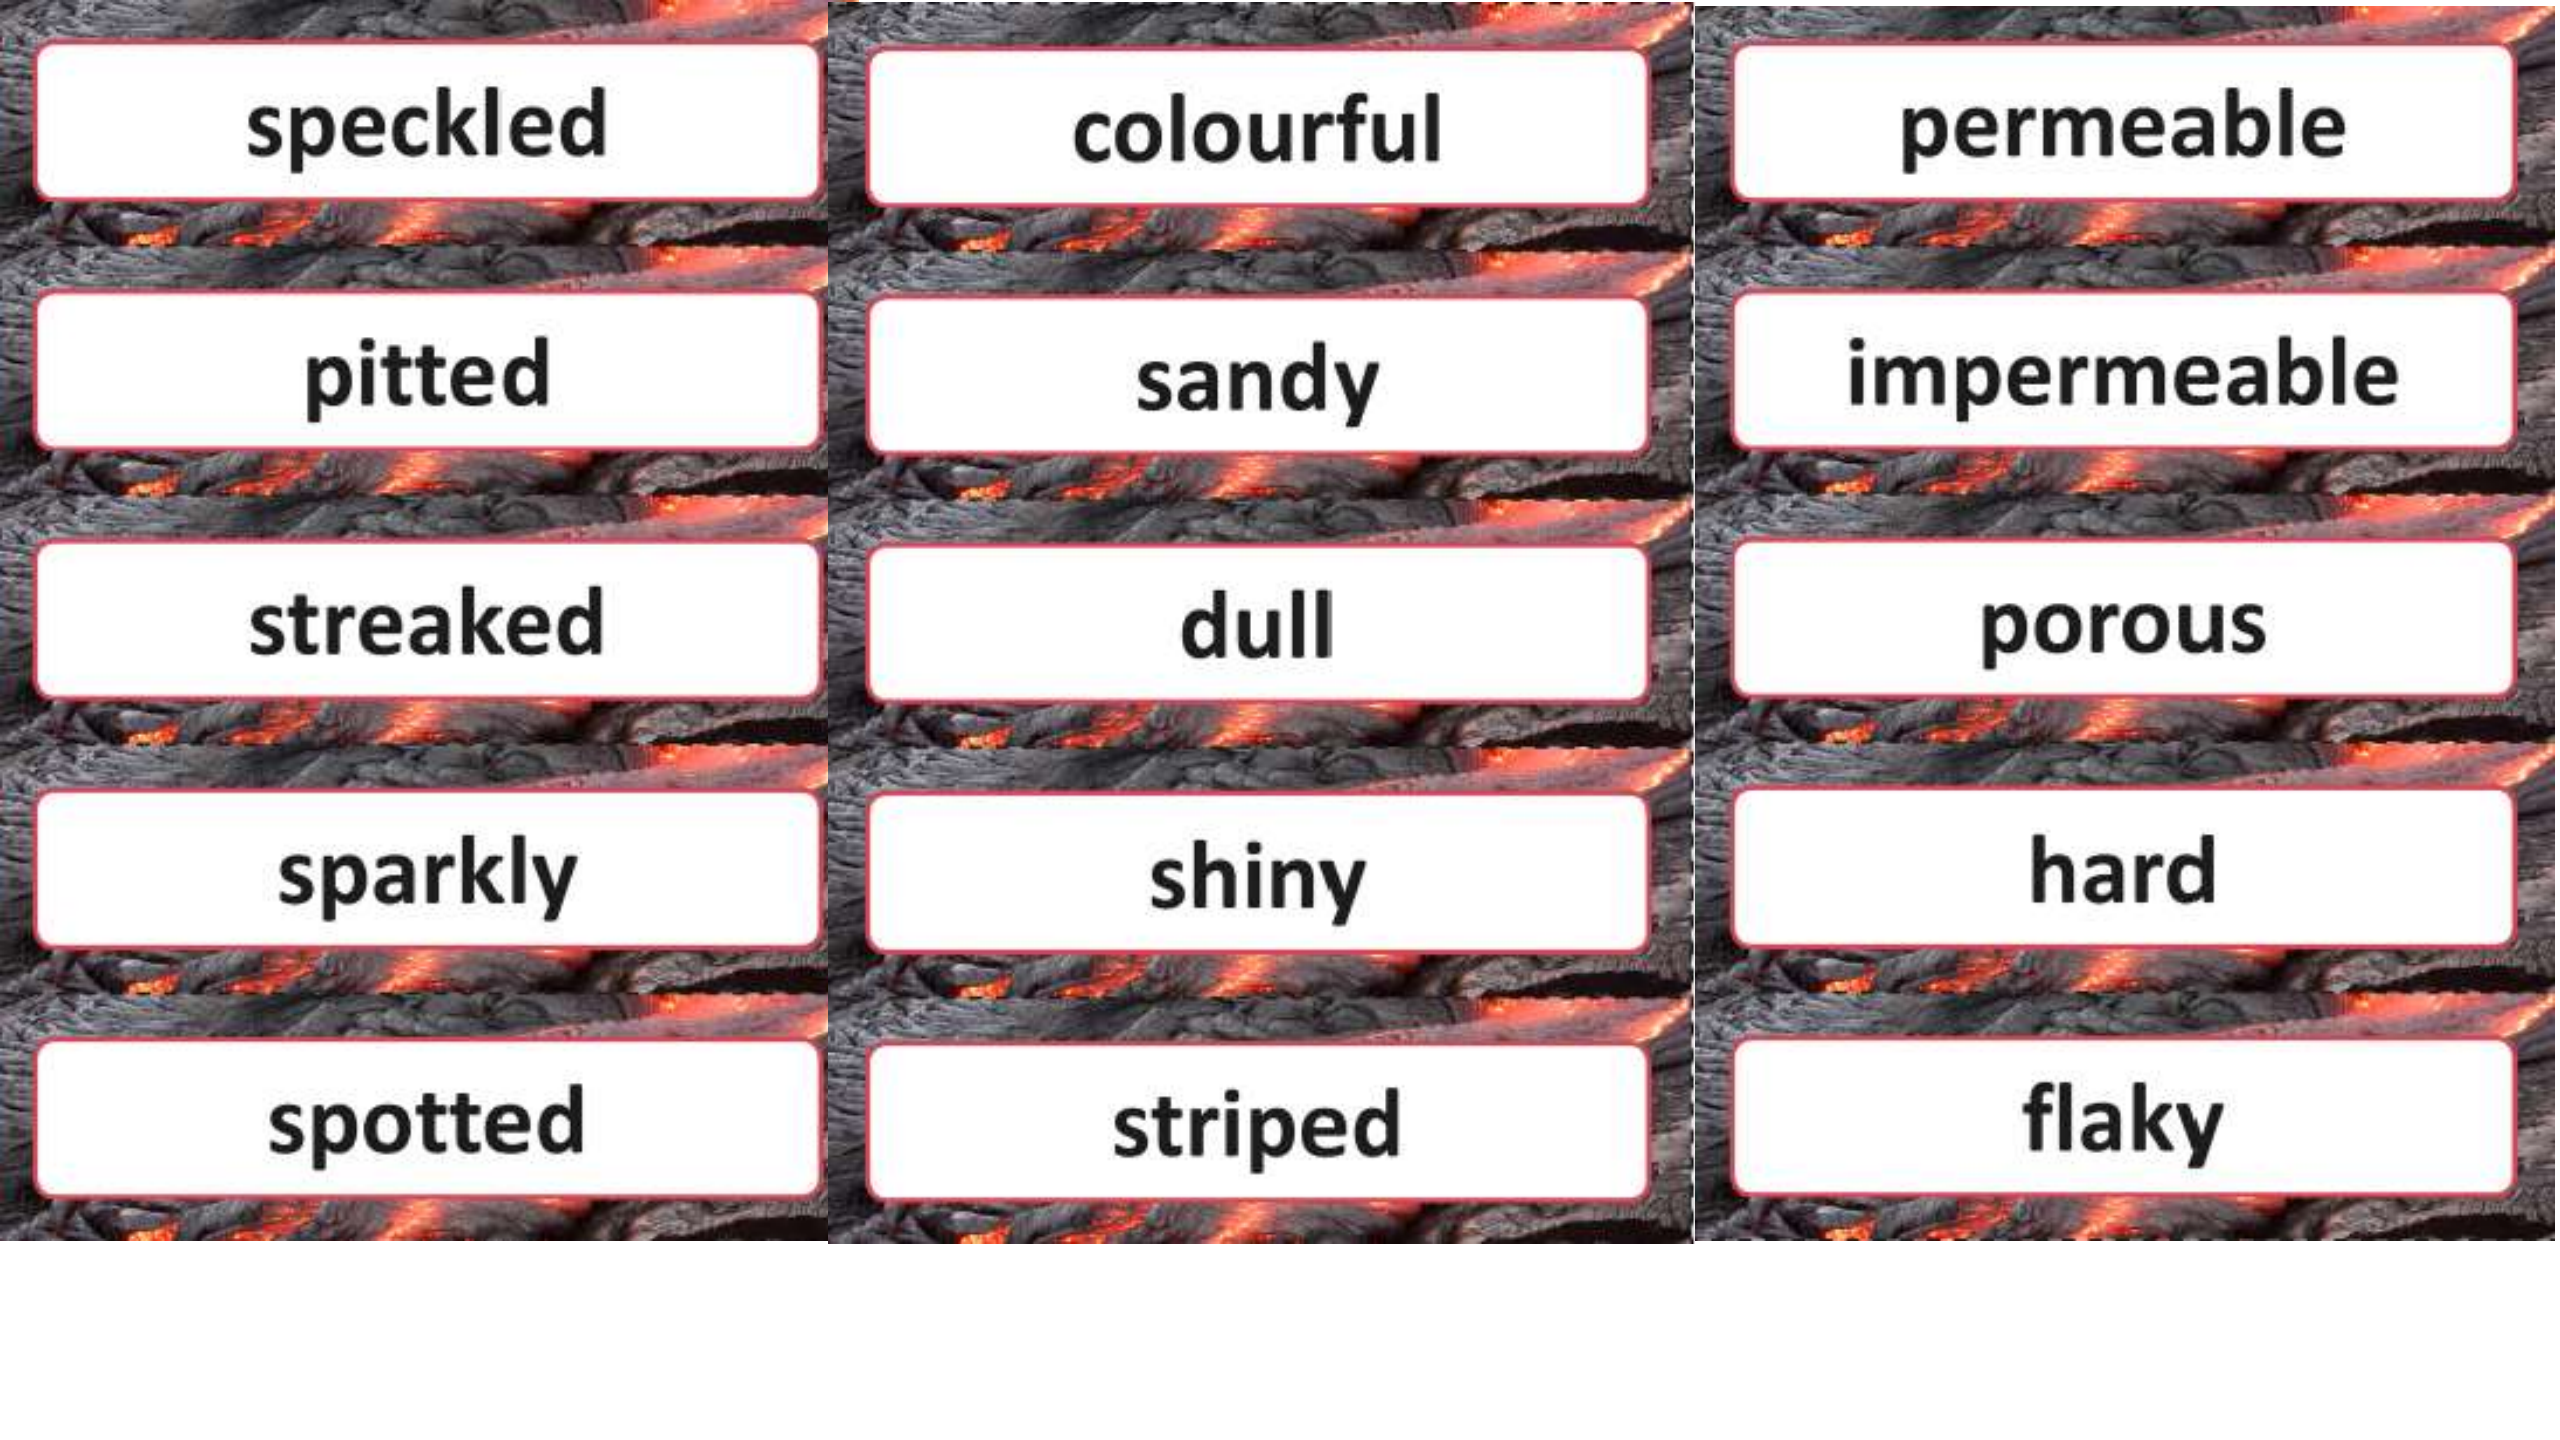

lumpy

jagged

polished

crumbly

grainy

speckled

pitted

streaked

sparkly

spotted

colourful

sandy

dull

shiny

striped

permeable

impermeable

porous

hard

flaky

Pretend your chosen pebble is in your pocket.
Create your own free verse list poem with phrases.

You could write a line about

- Its texture
- Its colour
- Its patterns
- Its weight
- Where it was found
- You could end with an exclamation or a question

Once you have written your poem..

- Can you improve any words?
- What happens if you change the order of the lines?
- Which lines sound best to you? Why?

Practise reading your poem aloud with clear volume and rhythm.