

LITERACY 17-21 MAY 2021

MONDAY

Read Chapter 22 'Along the Corridor'

Read Chapter 23 'Square Sweets that Look Round'

Think of a name for a character, draw it based on clues in their name and my own ideas.

Label my characters' features using descriptive language including alliteration and similes, and add notes about their behaviour and habits

LO Invent a new character, thinking of their name, appearance and descriptive words

TUESDAY

Read Chapter 24 'Veruca in the Nut Room'

Mrs Salt is worried that Veruca will be 'sizzled like a sausage' and Mr Salt thinks that the incinerator will 'roast her to a crisp.' Can you think of any other similes, metaphors or descriptive phrases to explain what could happen to Veruca if the great fiery incinerator is lit that day?

Use your notes from yesterday to write two paragraphs describing your character as vividly as possible.

- Use interesting adjectives and expanded noun phrases
- Describe your character's appearance, clothes and personality
- Use a simile to make comparisons
- Use alliteration

LO To write a description for your new character

Proof read for spelling, grammar and punctuation errors

WEDNESDAY

Watch land iguana clip <https://www.naturalcurriculum.co.uk/year-3-grammar-lessons/extending-sentences-subordinating-conjunctions/land-iguana/screen-1/>

Complete sentences.

LO Extend sentences using different conjunctions (and, or, but) and (when, if, that, because, although)

THURSDAY

Read Chapter 25 'The Great Glass Lift'

How many similes can you spot in this chapter?

Can you make a prediction based on previous chapters what might happen in the television room?

Explain your reasoning using the text and not because I have read the book or seen the film.

Through the glass walls of the lift, the children catch sudden glimpses of strange and wonderful things going on in other rooms. Choose one of the short descriptions and use it as an opening for your own detailed description of exactly what could be happening in that room.

LO To write about a setting descriptively

FRIDAY

Read Chapter 26 'The Television Chocolate Room'

Recap Chapters from the week with oral comprehension questions

LO To understand the text read and be able to prove some answers with quotes.

Answer comprehension questions
