

Everyday Materials

Today we will be...

Exploring the difference between a material and an object.

How many different materials can you remember?

Let's write a list!

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for writing a list of materials.

What object do you think this is?

What
material
is it made from?

It was a coin! Coins are made from metal.

Did you guess the object and the material correctly?

What
object do you think this is?

What
material
is it made
from?

Did you
guess the object and the material
correctly?

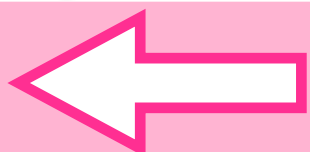

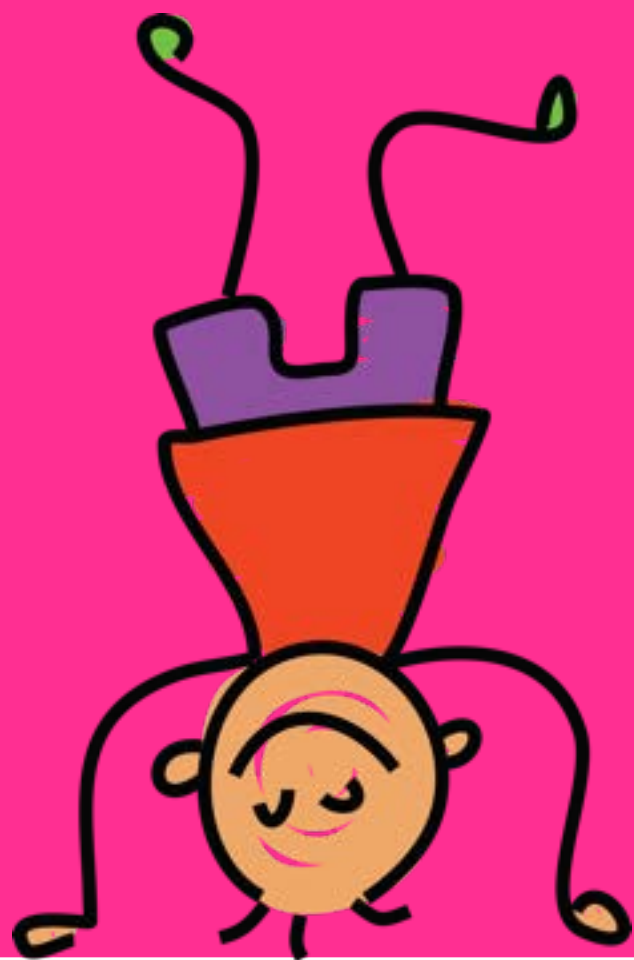

It was a comb! This comb is made from plastic.

What
object do you think this is?

What
material
is it made from?

It was a chair!

This chair is made from wood.

Did you guess the object and the material
correctly?

What
object do you think this is?

What
material
is it made
from?

It was a T-shirt!

This T-shirt is made from a type of fabric called cotton.

Did you
guess the object and the material
correctly?

What
object do you think this is?

What
material
is it made
from?

It was a spoon!

This spoon is made from metal.

Did
you guess the object and the material
correctly?

What
object do you think this is?

What
material
is it made
from?

It was a statue!

This statue is made from a type of stone called marble.

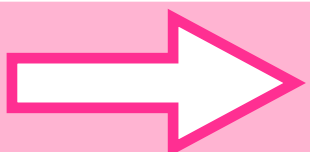

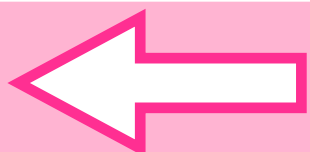

Did you guess the object and the material correctly?

What
object do you think this is?

What
material
is it made
from?

It was a bottle!

This bottle is made
from glass.

Did you guess the object and
the material
correctly?

What object do you think this is?

What material is it made from?

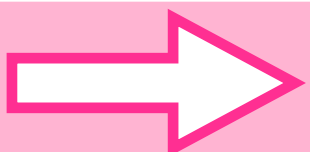

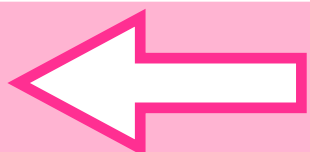

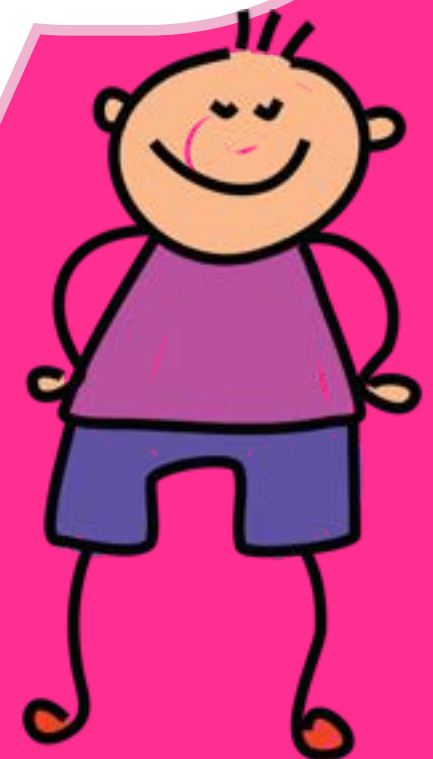

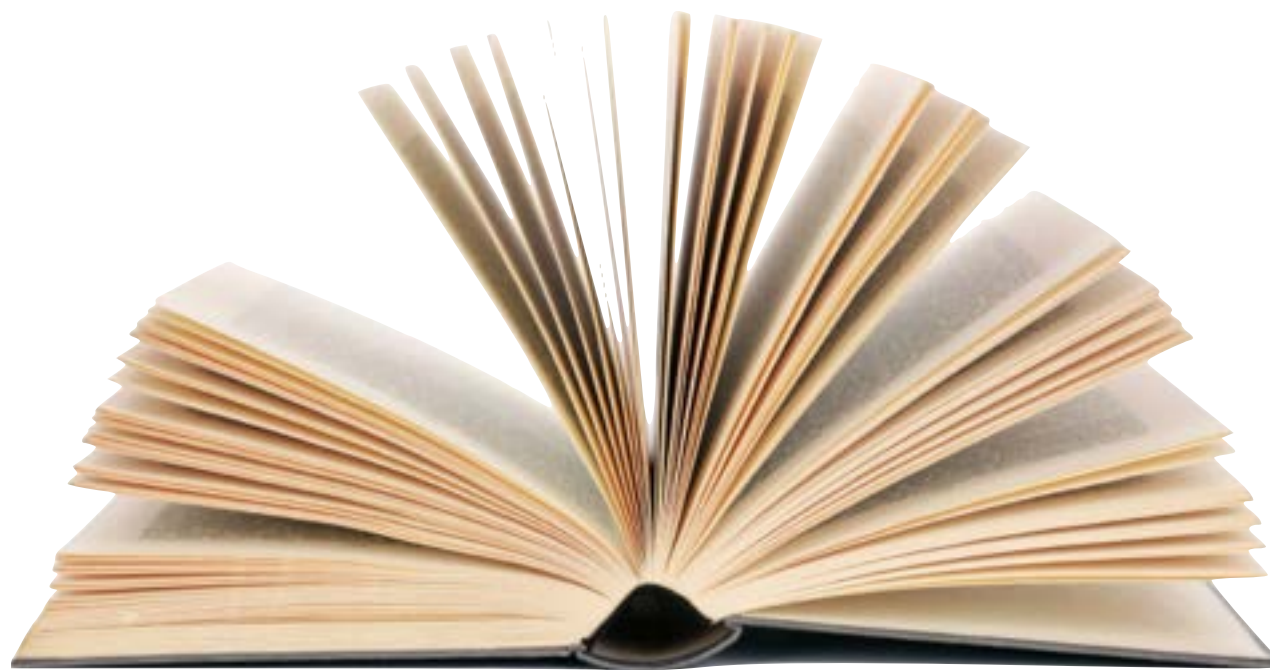

It was a book!

This book is made from paper.

Did you
guess the object and
the material
correctly?

Wood

Have a look around the classroom.

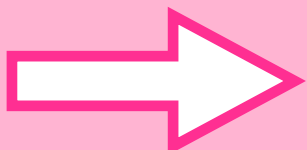

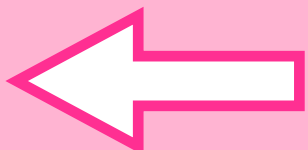

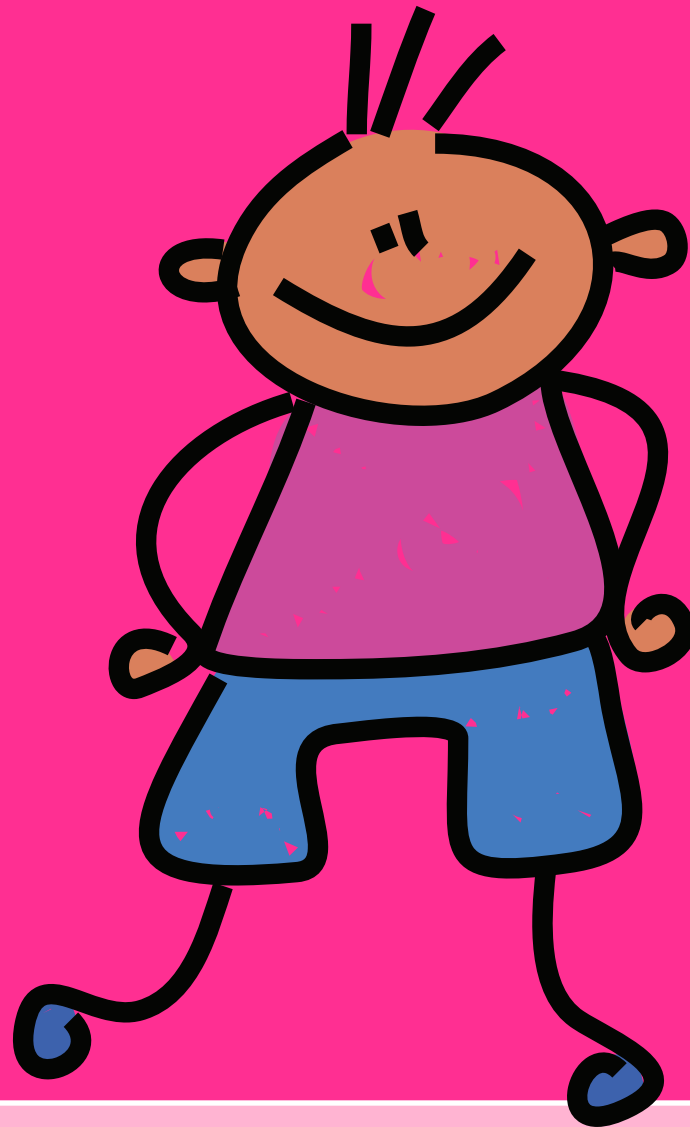

Can you see an object that is made from this material?

Plastic

Have a look around the classroom.

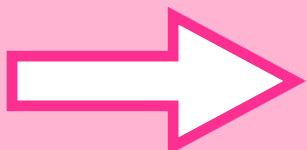

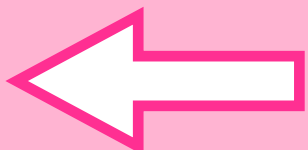

Can you see an object that is made from this material?

Metal

Have a look around the classroom.

Can you see an object that is made from this material?

Fabric

Have a look around the classroom.

Can you see an object that is made from this material?

