Dear Parents and Carers,

Setting personal goals has been our theme for this week. We have explored how that the goals we set, must not only challenges us, but realistic too. And that our journey to achieving our goals, may not be a smooth one. With every bump on the way, we learn perseverance. I would like to challenge you all to set yourself a personal goal—mine would be to have a technology free evening at the weekend, allowing that crucial reconnect time with my family. I would like to wish you all a very pleasurable weekend.

Mrs Charman
