Kindness in School

*A smile can brighten someone's day,
A helping hand can show the way.
Kind words make friendships strong and true,
And spread a little joy too.*

*In every classroom, hall and play,
Kindness helps us learn each day.
For when we care and do our part,
We build a school with a happy heart.*

During our assemblies this week, we have been sharing with the children, this term's school value—kindness. The acts can be as simple as a smile or as big as a guiding hand. But one thing we all need, is a little kindness in our lives.

I have been so impressed by all the children this week, their behaviour has been exemplary in and out of the classroom and I have noticed some many good examples of children helping each other. Well done everyone.

Wishing you all a wonderful weekend.

Mrs Charman
